

Abstract

A ski or snowboard with removable and interchangeable edge sections. These edge sections are specifically designed to allow a ski or snowboard to have the best edge combination for traditional use as well as for sliding or grinding on objects. The fixed or removable grind plate system protects a ski or snowboards edges from damage due to sliding or grinding on objects and surfaces.